SOME THINGS CONSIDERED

COME HOLY SPIRIT

The days between Ascension Thursday and Pentecost mark the origin of the novena. From ancient times the church, as it were, went to an upper room. Today's Acts text tells of the apostles and the others going to the room and beginning fervent prayer for an outpouring of the Spirit. This COVID time gives us the perfect opportunity to add in some extra prayer time. The Spirit empowered the disciples, frozen in fear and confusion. Our circumstance today is similar. There is more than enough fear among us today. While some reported on the news, show impatience for re-opening, many more feel wary. Even our venturing out is done with an awareness that this virus is not gone, and very much a threat to our good health. Our fears are not those that locked the doors and windows of that upper room. But, we too, have locked doors and windows in our time.

Inevitably, an outpouring of the Spirit upon us will not throw open our doors and windows. The apostle's reasons for sheltering in place and ours are clearly quite different.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and we shall be recreated,
and you shall renew the face of the earth.

This is a prayer I learned early in childhood. It has a long tradition in the church calling forth the Holy Spirit. I offer it here as a way of praying during these days leading to Pentecost. We pray for a renewal of the gifts of the Holy Spirit: Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Fortitude, Knowledge, Piety and Fear of the Lord. These express the ways the Holy Spirit effects and guides our lives. In these days, and in the most ordinary of times, we need Wisdom, Knowledge, Counsel. We need God's help, God's Grace, in seeing, understanding, and coming to Peace with the circumstances of our lives, decisions that must be made. We pray, as the apostles did in that upper room, for God's Grace. Fortitude is the gift that enables us to transition from prayer to action. Our action must be informed by our prayer, and our prayer must lead to action in the name of Jesus. Piety and Fear of the Lord are dimensions of our relationship with God. Fear of the Lord is not cowering and trembling. It is that deep sense of reverence and awe in the very presence of God. Living in that awe, training ourselves to an awareness of God's indwelling, surrounding us always, becomes the very foundation of the living out of the Spirit's gifts.

Today's readings also remind us that just as the apostles turned to prayer, and we do today, Jesus too, is praying. That is an amazing thought… 'I pray for them Father…'. John recalls in this gospel that Jesus assured the disciples then, and Jesus assures us today, that He is praying for us. We have all had the experience of being told 'I am praying for you.' Jesus says to you today: 'I am praying for you.'

This Seventh Sunday of Easter reminds us that the Spirit gifts us for living Jesus's life, and Jesus prays for us.

We could just pause on the wonder of that image ….Jesus is praying for you….at all times….praying that you receive the gift of the Holy Spirit...praying that you are fully enabled and equipped to live Jesus's life each day.

Please send us the names of your graduates so we may honor them June 13/14.

Have a good week love,

Our Church is equipped with hearing-loop for hearing aid wearers.
Switching your hearing aid to the "T-Mode" position should allow you to hear the service.

"Praise be to you, my Lord."
"Laudato Si', mi' Signore" — "Praise be to you, my Lord." These are the words that open Pope Francis' encyclical on ecology and care for God's creation. These words, quoting St. Francis of Assisi's beautiful canticle, remind us that our common home is like a sister with whom we share our life and a beautiful mother who opens her arms to embrace us.

FORMED

Celebrate Pope Saint John Paul II's 100th birthday with this epic retelling of his extraordinary life.

This film follows Karol Wojtyla's journey from his youth in Poland through his late days on the Chair of St. Peter. It explores his life behind the scenes: how he touched millions of people, changed the face of the Church and the world, and how he defended the dignity of mankind.

Jon Voight's powerful, Emmy-nominated performance as John Paul II was widely praised, as was Cary Elwes as the young Karol. Shot on location in Rome and Poland in close connection with the Vatican, this is the definitive epic film on the life of Pope John Paul II. Also stars Ben Gazzara, James Cromwell, and Christopher Lee.

St. John of Rochester Parish Tithing

During these very trying times several of the Ministries that help the less fortunate have had to temporarily close down or curtail their activities. This is especially sad because it is now that the people who rely on those various services need them the most. That makes it even more imperative that we, the Parishioners of St. John of Rochester, continue our tithing activity to help those ministries accomplish their missions.

Each month St. John of Rochester Parish tithes a percentage of the regular collection to worthy ministries and charities. The recipients of your tithes are selected by the Parish Tithing Committee based on suggestions made by you, the parishioners. The committee reviews those suggestions and selects those that best fit the following criteria.

The Works of Mercy, both Corporal and Spiritual, are the main determining factors in the selection. The committee assesses how well the recommended organizations:

Feed the Hungry
Give Drink to the Thirsty
Clothe the Naked
Shelter the Homeless
Visit the Sick
Visit the Imprisoned
Bury the Dead
Comfort the Sorrowful
Teach the Unknowing
Help the Sinner
Counsel the Doubtful
Bear Wrongs Patiently
Forgive Injuries
Pray for the Living and Dead

So far this fiscal year our tithes have helped the following ministries:

A Meal and More
St. Joseph's House of Hospitality
Cameron Community Center
Linda's Cupboard
Hope Hall
Focus Pregnancy Help Center
Spiritus Christi Prison Outreach
Notre Dame Learning Center
RAIHN
The What's Next? Sorority
House of Mercy
St. Peter's Kitchen
Dimitri House
South Wedge Food Program
Nativity Preparatory Academy
Women's Care Center
Mothers in Need of Others
Mercy Bridges
Friends of Borgne
Mary's Place

We are sure that there are many more organizations that could use our help. But it is impossible for the committee to be aware of all of them. Therefore, WE NEED YOUR HELP! Please, if you have heard or read about any ministry that is struggling right now, let the committee know about it. You can download the suggestion form from the SJR website (on the Ministries / Parish Tithing Page) and mail to the parish office. Or just send an email with the information to johnna442@hotmail.com.

To quote Father Peter, "We welcome you to do something for others."
